

Companies

Our dedicated staff of choreographers, vocal and drama instructors, and our technical staff instruct students from 1st-12th grades in the dramatic arts by promoting self-confidence, communication, enhanced team building, and individual responsibility. Whether a person decides to enter the professional world as a performer or chooses to use their skill in a different way, we want them to appreciate and respect all of the arts.

Performing companies

SEnior Company

The emphasis of our premier company, grades 8 – 12 is on performance and stage presence. Advanced techniques in dance, drama and vocal are showcased with two major sections in each production. This company meets two days per week and two Saturdays per month. Creativity and self-expression are encouraged.

junior company

The junior company, grades 5-8 meets one day per week and one Saturday a month. They are showcased in one major section of each production. Instruction focuses on learning performance skills and stage presence with an emphasis on higher levels of dance, drama and vocal. This company prepares students for the more rigorous demands of the senior company.

sophomore company

The addition of this company, grades 1-5, has allowed us to prepare students in a quality arts program. They are instructed in the beginning levels of vocal technique, the art of dance and drama and stage presence. this company performs a few numbers in each production.

Technical company

Talented students grades 6 – 12, donate their creativity and time on weekends under the direction of master craftsmen to create, design, paint, and build sets. They learn about construction, stagecraft, prop making and operate lighting, sound and serve as deck the crew during shows.
